There was a fire in Hirehally last year. It started in a hut. Everyone was working in the fields. The children wanted to cook something. They tried to light a fire outside the hut. The wind blew a few sparks on to the roof and soon the hut was on fire. The villagers tried to put out the fire by throwing water and sand on it, but the fire spread to other huts and soon the whole village was burning. The people were so busy that they forgot to tell the police or the fire station.

In the end, however it turned out to be a good thing for the villagers. The Government of Karnataka came forward to help them. They appointed Rukmini, Special Engineer and she produced a very good plan for rebuilding the village. It was not an easy job to do so. She made the villagers work very hard. In less than a year the village was rebuilt.

59. What should the villagers have done when the fire broke out ? Why couldn't they do ?

60. Where did the children light a fire and why ?
